Pastor Jason's Notes Ephesians: Finding Your ID in Christ Forgiven People Forgive April 29th, 2018 Ephesians 4.32

Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.

i. Why _____?

b. Jesus' _____ on the cross provides for our forgiveness. (See Matthew 26.28; Colossians 2.13-14)

III. Three Teachings of Jesus on _____

- a. Believers are _____ to forgive.
(Luke 17.3-4)

Forgiven people forgive as God forgives!

On Your Own or with Your Family

A lot of people find the many mentions of blood in Scripture to be difficult. Some even try and minimize the blood-filled passages of Scripture. Why is it important to not abandon the biblical focus on blood? What do we lose in our beliefs?

Make a list of what you have been forgiven for in the past two weeks. Share this with a friend or as a family, if appropriate. Do you think these things were easy for other people to forgive or difficult?

Review the three passages from Jesus' teachings on forgiveness. Share or journal about any new insights that you have come to in these passages.

How would the world approach each of those three points? Would most people agree with these three points or disagree?
