Pastor Jason's Notes Forgiven People Forgive Seeking Forgiveness May 6, 2018 Psalm 51

How do we seek forgiveness in a way that glorifies God?

Setting the Stage for Psalm 51: 2 Samuel 11-12

1. David had _____ in his heart.
2. His lust led to _____ and abuse of power.
3. His adultery led to _____.
4. The murder led to more _____.

What Psalm 51 Tells Us About Seeking Forgiveness:

- I. Fully _____ Your Sin (1-6)
 - A. Do not _____ our sin. (3-6)
 - B. Understand who we have sinned _____. (4)
- II. Realize that Real Help Comes from _____ (7-12)
 - A. Recognize that we _____ help.
 - B. See this in light of the _____.

III. Declare God's _____ (13-15)

- A. We must see his discipline as _____.
- B. We must look to tell _____ of forgiveness.

IV. Stay _____ Before God (16-19)

- A. We must have a _____ and contrite heart.
- B. We _____ cheapen His grace and goodness.

How will you seek forgiveness this week?

On Your Own or with Your Family

Read through 2 Samuel 11-12. David's initial sin of lust led to many more sins that affected many people. What were the links in this chain of sin and who did it affect? What does this tell us about sin?

Since we live after Jesus's sacrifice on the cross, we read this Psalm differently. What parts of the Psalm do we read differently than those did during David's time?

What does a broken and contrite heart look like? Does this describe your heart in a situation like David's?

This week, approach at least one person and ask for forgiveness. Before going, make sure that you are putting into practice these four points from Psalm 51.
