IYM Palanca

The word Palanca is Spanish and means "to give rise, to lift." During the IYM retreat in October, notes of encouragement that contain scripture, referred to as Palanca, are given to each resident. Palanca often become treasured keepsakes by the residents and are read and reread after the retreat is long past. Blank note cards and instructions on writing Palanca are available at Guest Services. Please return completed Palanca to Crosspointe by Sunday, October 7.

Pastor Jason Coplen's Notes Ephesians: Finding Your ID in Christ Fear and Trembling September 23rd, 2018 Ephesians 6.5

Slaves, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ...
Ephesians 6.5

Two words for today:

1. _____ -

See also: Romans 13.7; Ephesians 5.21; Philippians 2.12

2. _____ -

See also: Mark 16.8; 1 Corinthians 2.3; 2 Corinthians 7.15 _____ should we demonstrate an attitude of "fear and trembling?"

1. It is the clear teaching of _____.

2. Christ is _____ of our awe and reverence.

3. This is part of the _____ of mankind.

_____ do we demonstrate an attitude of “fear and trembling?”

1. We _____ the word.

2. We approach Christ with _____ and _____.

3. We build our _____ around Him.

How are you approaching Christ?

On Your Own or with Your Family

Look back through the various passages listed for fear and trembling. Do you gain any additional insights through these passages? What have you learned?

Take some time to write down all of the reasons that Christ is worthy of your awe and reverence. Be general (He gave his life for us) and be specific (he died for my specific sin).

In what ways have you not approached Christ with the respect and the reverence that he is due? Find someone to discuss this with. What will you do differently in the future?

What can you do to continue to build your life around Christ? How can you continue to make sure that He is the center of your life?
