Pastor Jason's Sermon Notes

When the Light Shines

1 John 1.5-2.2

June 26th, 2016

Remembering John's Message (1 John 1.5)

1. God is _____.
2. Sin _____ us from God.

Shining the Light on the Lies About Sin

LIE #1 - My Sin Doesn't _____ (1.6-7)

TRUTH: Sin is _____. (See also Genesis 3, 6-8; Judges 2; Matthew 27; Revelation 20.11-15)

LIE #2 - I _____ Sin (1.8-9)

TRUTH: We do sin, but we can be _____. (See also Romans 3.23-26)

LIE #3 - I've _____ Sinned (1.10-2.2)

TRUTH: Jesus has _____ your sin. (See also Romans 3.23-26)

He is our _____ – He stands before God to plead our case

He is our _____ – by His sacrifice our sins are paid for

Are you trusting in Christ or ignoring the problem?

On Your Own or with Your Family

Look up the following verses and discuss the mentioning of "light," in each of the passages. What can we learn about God from the use of the term "light" in these passages? – Psalm 27; Psalm 119.105; John 1; Ephesians 5).

Of the three "lies" mentioned above, which lie are you most prone to listen to? Why do you think that is?

Remember that the Gospel really isn't good news if we have not been saved from anything. Take a moment this week and list the things that you have been saved from? Consider both sins that you have struggled with and maybe even those things that you never have struggled with. How has He saved you?
