Pastor Jason's Sermon Notes

Remembering Who We Are

1 John 2.12-14

July 10th, 2016

Context and Background

John addresses 3 groups of people in this passage:

1) Little Children –

2) Young Men –

3) Fathers –

In order to stand strong in our culture, we have to remember what is true about ourselves:

1) We have been _____ . (2.12)

Do you find joy in your forgiveness?

2) We can know _____. (2.13-14)

Are you growing deeper in your relationship with God?

3) We have overcome the _____. (2.13-14)

Are you living as someone who has overcome the enemy?

"Preach the Gospel to yourself everyday."

Jerry Bridges

How are you remembering what is true about you as a believer?

On Your Own or with Your Family

Would you consider yourself more like the "young men" or the "fathers" in this passage? Why? In what ways do you wish you were more like each of these?

Why is it important to remember that our sins are forgiven? Spend some time looking up these other passages on the forgiveness of sin. Journal your thoughts on each verse or discuss them with someone close to you. – Ephesians 4.32; 1 John 1.9; James 5.16; Colossians 3.13.
