Become a Voice of Hope in Times of Trouble

On Your Own or with Your Family

What are some things that are happening in our world today that might be like the kinds of difficulties that Daniel was encountering during the time of Nebuchadnezzar?

The book of Proverbs has a lot to say about showing restraint with our words. Read the following passages from the book of Proverbs and make note of what each of them says: Proverbs 10.19; 15.4; 15.28; 17.9. How can you begin to put these ideas into practice in your life?

Take some extra time to re-read the prayer that Daniel offers in 2.19-23. Rewrite the prayer in your own words. Is this a prayer that you could pray in your own life? Why or why not?

Pray and ask God to show you somewhere that you can become a voice of hope in times of trouble. Maybe it is within your family or at work. Ask for wisdom as to how you can best represent God in that situation.
