Today's Scripture

1 Peter 1:17-21

And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in

Pastor Jason's Sermon Notes for May 31, 2020 1 Peter Series A Consistent Fear 1 Peter 1:17-21

- I. A Call to Fear
 - A. How do we understand "fear" in this passage?
 - B. What should we fear?
 - i. Giving in to the ways of our past.
 - ii. Giving in to the seductions of our present.

the last times for the sake of you who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

1. The goal of self-preservation
2. The promise of Freedom

What past or present things do you need to leave behind?

- II. A Reason to Fear
- A. We have been ransomed.
 - B. We have been saved.
 - C. Christ has been raised.

We “fear” because of what God has done for us, not what God might do to us!

Have I embraced a “fear of God” in my life?

On Your Own or With Your Family

What is something that you are afraid of? How is that similar/different to the kind of fear that Peter is talking about in this passage?

Look up these passages on having a “fear of God.” What do they add to your understanding of fearing God? Proverbs 1.7; 8.13; 14.27; 19.23; Job 28.28; Ecclesiastes 12.13.

“We fear God because of what He has done for us, not what He might do to us.” What are some of the things that God has done for you that cause you to fear Him?

How should your fear of God lead you to love others? How can you demonstrate that love today?
