Today's Scripture

1 Peter 2:4-10

As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it stands in

A New People
1 Peter 2:4-10

Peter uses three symbols to describe the calling of a believer:

- I. Stones

Scripture: “Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.” So the honor is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe, “The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,” and “A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense.” They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

A. These stones are joined to build something significant.

B. Christ brings believers together. He is the Cornerstone.

How can we be “stone-like?”

II. Priests

A. Priests mediate between God and a fallen world.

B. They direct worship and honor to the God of heaven.

How can we be “priests?”

III. Citizens

A. Citizens are concerned primarily with the kingdom.

B. The focus of a believer is on the kingdom of God.

How can we be “citizens?”

On Your Own or With Your Family

So much of what Peter is saying in this passage is informed by his knowledge of the Old Testament. Take some time to read these passages: Isaiah 8, 28; Psalm 118. Do they help you to better understand what Peter was saying? Why or why not?

In what ways can we mediate between God and fallen world? Can you think of something you can do this week?

If we are to be concerned primarily with being citizens of the kingdom of God, what does that mean for our citizenship
