Today's Scripture

1 Peter 2:12

Keep your conduct among the Gentiles honorable, so that when they speak against you as evildoers, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day of visitation.

1 Peter 2:12

I. Be Honorable

"Keep your conduct among Gentiles honorable..."

- A. Be honorable in our relationships with others.
- B. Be honorable and truthful.

Is your conduct honorable?

II. Be Expecting

"...so that when they speak against you as evildoers..."

- A. Be expecting the antagonism of an unbelieving culture.
- B. Be expecting the mischaracterization of good as evil.

Are you ready to be "spoken against?"

III. Be Hoping

"...they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day of visitation."

- A. Be hoping our good deeds might point others to the Lord.
- B. Be hoping that a "new view" might lead to a "new life."

Are your deeds leading to God's glory?

Where have you been less than honorable in your conduct?

How can you be more intentional in your actions?

On Your Own or With Your Family

Peter has a lot to say about our actions throughout his letter. Consider these other passages. In what areas does Peter get specific as he gives applications for honorable conduct?

1 Peter 1.15; 1.18; 3.1-2; 3.16

In what ways have you experienced the antagonism of an unbelieving culture? How did you respond? What might you try and do differently in the future?

Do you have a hope that your good deeds might point others to the Lord? What might you do to foster a greater sense of hope?
